

JOB OPPORTUNITY
CONTRACT - AWAKE NIGHT STAFF
(December 2018 - Approximately 1 year)
Location: 44 Wordsworth Place, Kitchener, ON

KW Habilitation is a progressive, person-centered organization that supports children, youth and adults with developmental disabilities in the Kitchener-Waterloo area. Our vision is: “a community where everyone belongs and participates”.

We're looking for a person who can join our team. Specific duties for this role include: providing respectful and supportive care, promoting people's skills and abilities, providing opportunity and education for growth and development, honoring personal choice and informed decision-making, implementing individualized routines.

Skills Required:

- Post-Secondary education in a Human Services and six months related experience (experience working/volunteering with people who have a developmental disability preferred)
- Able to provide physical (e.g., lifting, transfers) and behavioural support as required.
- Able to implement positive behavioral approaches, work as an integral part of the team and demonstrate effective interpersonal communication skills.
- Able to demonstrate creative problem-solving and decision-making, initiative, resilience, and collaboration
- Commitment to providing person-centered support, fostering independence, and advocating for others
- The successful candidate will have strong organizational, housekeeping/cleaning, communication skills and knowledge of KWH administration procedures an asset.
- Current First Aid, NVCI, and computer skills are also essential qualifications.

The position is for 40 hours per week Monday to Friday midnight to 8:00 a.m. (Some flexibility required).

Please forward your resume and cover letter no later than Monday, November 12, 2018 to:
